

ROBBY KOJETIN

International Keynote Speaker | Bestselling Author | Adventurer

From Wheelchair to Everest

Robby Kojetin speaks about resilience, recovering stronger and performance under pressure because he lived it.

After a simple mistake at an indoor climbing gym left him in a wheelchair for a year, Robby rebuilt his life, one step at a time, to ultimately stand on the summit of Mount Everest. Since then, he has climbed five of the Seven Summits, summited Kilimanjaro ten times, finished the Ironman and inspired audiences across five continents.

Today Robby helps organisations develop resilient people who perform under pressure, adapt to change and lead with courage when circumstances are at their toughest.

His story has been featured in the Discovery Channel series Everest: Beyond the Limit, and his bestselling book Left Foot Right Foot has inspired readers around the world.

Left Foot Right Foot is far more than an adventure story - it's a powerful reminder of the resilience that lies within all of us.

Robby Kojetin takes readers on an extraordinary journey from devastating adversity to the summit of Mount Everest, sharing the physical, emotional, and mental battles that shaped his life. His storytelling is honest, engaging, and refreshingly human, balancing moments of hardship with humour, hope, and hard-earned wisdom.

Rather than offering clichés about success, the book reveals that extraordinary achievements are built one deliberate step at a time. Whether you're facing personal challenges, leading a team, or simply searching for renewed motivation, this book will leave you inspired to keep moving forward despite the obstacles.
